

NEW SPIRITS OF HUMANITARIANISM: Genealogies, Practices, Responses

International Workshop

DATES 11-12 December 2014

VENUE Female Orphan School, Parramatta South Campus, University of Western Sydney

ORGANISERS: Jessica Whyte (j.whyte@uws.edu.au) and Sonja van Wichelen (s.vanwichelen@uws.edu.au)

SPONSORS: Philosophy@UWS & the UWS Higher Degree Research Training Scheme

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Thursday 11 December, 9.30-11.00

Miriam Ticktin

New School for Social Research, New York City
Humanitarianism and Beyond: the Pasts and Futures of Care

Thursday 11 December, 14.00-15.30

Ilan Kapoor

York University, Toronto
The Ideology of Celebrity Humanitarianism

Friday 12 December, 9.00-10.30

Eyal Weizman

Goldsmiths, University of London
Lethal Warning

PARTICIPANTS

Ilia Antenucci (University of Western Sydney)

Simone Bignall (University of New South Wales)

Melinda Cooper (University of Sydney)

Joanne Faulkner (University of New South Wales)

Kiran Grewal (Australian Catholic University)

Michael Humphreys (University of Sydney)

Mithilesh Kumar (University of Western Sydney)

Marc de Leeuw (University of New South Wales)

Anne McNevin (Monash University)

Gabrielle Simm (Macquarie University and UNSW)

Jessica Whyte (University of Western Sydney)

Sonja van Wichelen (University of Western Sydney)

Magdalena Zolkos (Australian Catholic University)

Left to right:

Ilan Kapoor
Miriam Ticktin
Eyal Weizman

Keynotes are open to the public. Postgraduate students are encouraged to attend the workshop as well. Only a limited number of places are available for scholars who wish to attend the workshop as a whole (please contact the organizers). Preference will be given to those working on humanitarianism and who can commit to attending the entire workshop.